

Who is Eligible to Receive Certified Copy
Of An AZ Death Record
(A.C.C. R-9-19-314)

Arizona is a "closed record" state. This means that vital records are not public record. Arizona law identifies those who are eligible to receive a certified copy of an Arizona death record:

Who is Eligible to Apply in Arizona:

1. A funeral director representing one of the following in a final disposition of the deceased individual's human remains, within 12 months after the registration of the deceased individual's death:
 - a. The deceased individual through a prearranged funeral agreement, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1301;
 - b. The deceased individual's spouse;
 - c. The deceased individual's parent, grandparent, or adult child, grandchild, brother, or sister; or
 - d. Another person who is responsible for the final disposition of the deceased individual's human remains according to A.R.S. § 36-831
2. The surviving spouse of the deceased individual
3. A parent or grandparent of the deceased individual
